

Take a closer look at your PSL.

Check they're an  FCSA
Accredited Member

We understand that developing a compliant PSL is no small challenge. Distinguishing between organisations that play lip-service to compliance and those that are fully committed is complex, costly and time-consuming. Getting it wrong can have serious implications on your business.

That's why we have done the checks for you.

Every FCSA Accredited Member has undergone the most stringent testing in the industry, at no cost to your agency.

Recognised as the industry's compliance gold standard for umbrella employers, contractor accountants and CIS/self-employed payroll service providers, agencies can reduce risk by committing to a PSL comprising exclusively of fully compliant and transparent FCSA Accredited Members.

FCSA Accredited Members:

- Adhere to rigorous standards.
- Are assessed against a published a published Code of Compliance
- Are independently tested by regulated accountants and solicitors
- Have their FCSA audit disclosed to HMRC
- Prove their compliance annually.

FCSA is a not for profit organisation, fully owned by its members. Our chief executive is appointed by the members and is independent, with no commercial conflict of interest.
